EXCITING WEEK IN RAW SUGAR

Willett & Gray's Journal of July 13 contains the following particulars of the recent spectacular turn in the sugar market:

Raws—The week under review has been one of great excitement and advance on the European sugar exchanges, and participated in to some extent in our markets.

Beet sugar advanced from 11s. 9d. (4.49c) to 12s. 4 1/2d. (4.62c), say 7 1/2d., or 13c per lb. Futures kept pace and close at 12s. 5/4d. (4.64c) and new crop 11s. 4 1/2d. (4.49c).

Centrifugals on spot advanced from 4.05s to 4.23c for 96 deg. test, say 18c per lb.

The business of the week was only moderate, being limited by the amount of sugar offered by sellers, who asked an advance after every sale made, and at the close generally are holding at about 1-16c to 1/4c per lb. above the last sale price; 4.39c is asked for prompt shipment, and 4.36c for August shipment. In the meantime sales are making at the old basis of 4.23c. Our parity is now 32c per lb. below beets.

Javas are held above the reach of our refiners, and find buyers in England at 11s. 6d. c. and f. (4.24c) for July-first half August shipments. Early Java shipments for United States are held at 12s. c. and f. (4.35c), while all July is held at 11s. 9d. (4.29c) and August at 11s. 7 1/2d. (4.26c).

The European speculation is now transferred from the Cuba crop reports which previously influenced it to the European beet crop reports, which now influence it.

Crop advances from the various countries of Europe, while differing considerably, have for some time been of a generally unfavorable character. This is especially true of Russia, Austria and some parts of Germany, where the crop did not secure a good start, and continued unfavorable weather has kept it in a backward state. In the major portion of Germany, while the start was unsatisfactory, the weather during a few weeks recently was favorable and the crop was at least holding its own. However, the latest cable advices indicate that conditions have become unfavorable. In France and the low countries, while early conditions were very satisfactory and the crop received a better start than for several years, the weather has recently been dry and cool and the growth of the roots is reported to have suffered a decided check.

While, from the first, a yield equal to the phenomenal yield of last year which, with the increased sowings would have furnished a sugar output of 8,450,000 tons, was out of the question, it now seems probable that an average crop of 7,477,500 tons (yield based upon the average of the past six years), can only be secured if favorable weather prevails from now on.

Cuba crop figures to June 30 are at hand giving production to that date 1,412,488 tons, against 1,589,675 tons last year, and 1,397,970 tons in 1909 to corresponding date.

Present high prices encourage the grinding of cane as much as possible at the five centrals working, and if the same amount is received as last year after July 1 (114,674 tons) or the year before (115,612 tons), the present crop will show 1,527,000 tons finally.

Cable weather reports continue favorable for the growing crop in Cuba. Louisiana has had generous rains and the crop is growing finely.

Porto Rico reports lack of moisture during the past month.

Hawaiian Islands would welcome more rain than has fallen.

Java cable figures, given elsewhere, show increased exports over last year. Mail advices state that sugar-making started earlier than usual, with a very good yield.

At the close the market is full up in strength and prices, although Europe hesitates at yesterday's quotations and does not send a further rise today.

Visible Supply.—Total stock of Europe and America, 1,337,790 tons, against 1,993,430 tons last year at the same uneven date. The decrease of stock is 55,640 tons, against an increase of 49,827 last week. Total stocks and afloats together show a visible supply of 2,175,790 tons, against 2,140,430 tons last year, or an increase of 35,360 tons.

Sachs' great clearance sale begins Tuesday morning.

TO LECTURE AT EMMA SQUARE

Christian F. Kraber, of Pittsburg, Pa., who has traveled in the Orient, having also walked over fire with the Buddhist priests, will give a lecture at Emma Square tonight at 7:30 sharp, and another one tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 4 o'clock. His subject will be, "An Outline of Theosophy and How to Overcome the Unrest of Struggling Humanity."

"Following are some of my principal teachings," writes the lecturer in a note to The Star:

"How to be well mentally, physically and spiritually."

"That man's soul is immortal and that its future is the future of a thing whose growth in splendor and glory have no limit."

"That the life-giving principle is within us and without us; it is undying, eternal and ever beneficent; it is not seen, heard or smelt, but is perceived by the man who desires perception."

"That every one is absolutely his own law giver, his dispenser of glory or of gloom, and the decreer of his life, his reward, his punishment."

"That socialism as it is taught today will never be successful, for God teaches me (as an ex-machinist and rolling mill puddler) not to accept the wealth and products that the capitalist has accumulated for his individual use if it was forced from him by the powerful weapon we call the ballot."

"That as there is a standard wage fixed by God's law, I have no right as I used to do—to demand the highest wages paid in the shop, and if I was not worthy, to be discharged. But that I must be willing to work for whatever wages my employer gives me until he willingly gives me more by me proving my worthiness as a producer for his welfare."

"That I must love all men and all things, although all are not alike lovely."

"That the American nation, being composed of people of all nations, is the most successful and ought to have or has the best of everything. As the best forms a center of attraction which eventually all will be drawn to gladly and willingly uniting and make this a united world instead of a United States, governed under the one great flag, the glorious Stars and Stripes, which ever hangs in the heavens."

"That to be eternally content I must live in eternity and overcome all evil or apparent evil with good."

"I would cheerfully meet any one in public debate who crosses me in my assertions, be he scientist, clergyman, materialist, Socialist or whoever he may be."

The band is playing this Saturday afternoon at Queen's Hospital. The Sunday band concert will take place at the public baths, Kapiolani Park, commencing at 3 o'clock.

Morning Cable Report

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Official advices have been received by the state department here that the capture of Port au Prince, the capital of Hayti is impending and that it is only a question of a short time when the rebels will be entirely in power.

With the capture of the capital the Haytian rebels will have full control of the entire republic and then will commence the struggle for power between the rival rebel generals, Leconte and Firmin, both of whom are reported candidates for president of the "Black Republic," to supplant President Simon.

COAL FAMINE IN CANADA.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, July 29.—Indications are that the only relief from a coal famine throughout western Canada and British Columbia, is in suspension of the tariff on coal brought from the United States.

In the province of Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia coal mines are closed on account of the general strike of miners who have refused to consent to arbitration, offered through the mediation of the Canadian minister of labor, Mackenzie King.

From the Crownst district, British Columbia, to the Lathbridge district in Alberta, the mines are closed.

PROMINENT DEMOCRAT DEAD.

LAKE GEORGE, New York, July 29.—Edward M. Shepard died here yesterday.

ANOTHER FATAL TRAIN WRECK.

GRINDSTONE, Maine, July 29.—In a collision between a special excursion train and a regular passenger train near here yesterday eight persons were killed and fifteen injured.

EX-BANK PRESIDENT GIVES UP.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Carey A. Manker, former president of the bank of Pearl, Illinois, surrendered to the police here yesterday as a defaulter, because he was starving. The bank at Pearl was wrecked in 1908, and its president was indicted, but disappeared. Manker confesses that he gambled away $45,000 of the bank's money.

GAIN IN STOCK SALES FOR WEEK

There has been a rapid advance in the price of sugar during the week. Centrifugals 96 degree test have gone from 4.36c, or $87.20 a ton, to 4.61c, or $92.20 a ton, and European beets from 12s. 7d. a hundredweight, equal to $92.80, to 13s. 8 1/4d., equal to $97.80 in New York.

This condition of the sugar market has affected sugar stocks here but slightly, unless it be taken for granted that only the rising price of sugar has prevented stagnation from taking the place of considerable activity. Prices of stocks have been very steady and declines few, while one or two stocks have distinctly strengthened.

For the first week ended at noon today the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange reported sales of 3341 shares, the proceeds amounting to $95,189.12 1/2, as compared with 2530 and $73,668.12 1/2 last week. Bonds were sold of the par value of $6000, against $58,000 last week.

"Olua is now $5.25 bid and $5.50 asked. Pioneer is $204 bid and $219 asked.

The Hawaiian exchange sold 50 shares of Olua yesterday at $5.

Today's list of the Honolulu exchange is featured by heavy sales from between sessions in Hawaiian Commercial and McBryde, the figures of which are included in the above weekly summary. There were 880 of McBryde divided into blocks of 325, 250, 250 and 35, besides three of five each on the board, at the long prevailing price of $6.50, and 186 of H. C. & S. in blocks of 86, 20, 50 and 30 at $38.50, an advance of a quarter point. Waialua shows no recovery from the slight fall of yesterday in 30 shares at $112.75. Thirty of Ewa sold at $31.75, a gain of one-eighth. Oahu gains five-eighths in a sale of ten shares at $31.26 1/2. Hilo Railroad common is up a quarter point in 100 shares at $5.50. Oahu Railway is unchanged in fifty shares at $14.

SUGAR TRUST AIDED HARRISON

NEW YORK, July 21.—The American Sugar Refining Company contributed $10,000 to help Benjamin Harrison in one of his campaigns for the Presidency against Grover Cleveland. The contribution was told of by John E. Parsons, former attorney for the company, in his testimony before the Congressional committee which is investigating the affairs of the so-called trust. He could not remember whether it was the first or second campaign.

Parsons frankly boasted that he was the "pioneer in the formation of the American trust," and was proud of it, but scouted the idea that the sugar trust constituted a monopoly such as the Standard Oil or American Tobacco companies.

The committees spent the afternoon visiting several sugar refineries in this vicinity, and held informal conferences with many superintendents, but took no testimony. C. A. Spreckels is expected to take the stand.

MOTT-SMITH TO B. VON DAMM

President Mott-Smith, of the Board of Health, has written a letter to B. von Damm, vice president of the Central Improvement Committee, in reply to his report in connection with the sanitary condition of the city as revealed by Clean-up Day. Mr. Mott-Smith does not agree with Mr. von Damm, but as he states, he prefers not to enter into a controversy.

The letter is as follows:

"Dear Mr. Von Damm:

"I am in receipt of your letter of the 27th inst. and inclosure, giving your impressions gained on 'Clean-up Day,' which is to be submitted to the meeting of the Central Improvement Committee tonight.

"I regret that I likewise will not be able to attend the meeting not because, however, of anything that you have said. In part I thoroughly agree with you; and in part I disagree. It is unnecessary, however, in my opinion to enter into a discussion of agreements or disagreements between just our two minds now, though I think some of your statements somewhat exaggerated and some perhaps erroneous. For the reasons stated below I do not desire to explain or contradict.

"The Central Improvement Committee should have before it a frank and intelligent expression of personal opinion from all and naturally I am not adverse to that, whether it be for or against the Board of Health or myself as its President. What is needed is all the light possible and from all quarters possible. 'Clean-up Day' has afforded the people the opportunity of looking around for themselves.

"If what you say is true then a remedy should be applied and there is none better to see about the application of the remedy than the Central Improvement Committee.

"I thank you for your personal letter and assure you, as you may gather from the above, that I take no umbrage whatsoever from what you have said, in fact welcome it as a frank expression of opinion. Yours sincerely,

"E. A. MOTT-SMITH,
"President, Territorial Board of Health."
